

VMware Administrator Interview Study Guide

Section 1 – VMware Basics

Q1: What is VMware and why do organizations use it?

A: VMware provides virtualization software that allows multiple virtual machines (VMs) to run on a single physical host. This reduces hardware costs, improves resource utilization, and enables scalability.

Key Takeaway: VMware = cost savings + flexibility + scalability.

Q2: Difference between virtualization and cloud computing?

A: Virtualization: Splitting hardware into multiple VMs.

Cloud Computing: Delivery of IT services (compute, storage, networking) over the internet, often built on virtualization.

Key Takeaway: Virtualization is the foundation; cloud is the service.

Q3: What are the types of virtualization VMware supports?

- A: • Server virtualization (ESXi)
• Network virtualization (NSX)
• Storage virtualization (vSAN)
• Desktop virtualization (Horizon)

Key Takeaway: VMware = end-to-end virtualization stack.

Q4: Difference between VMware Workstation, Fusion, and ESXi?

- A: • Workstation: Desktop virtualization for Windows/Linux.
• Fusion: Desktop virtualization for macOS.
• ESXi: Bare-metal enterprise hypervisor.

Key Takeaway: Workstation/Fusion = local use, ESXi = enterprise production.

Q5: What is VMware Tools?

A: A set of drivers and utilities installed inside VMs for better performance (mouse sync, time sync, network, storage, heartbeat monitoring).

Key Takeaway: Always install VMware Tools for stable VM performance.

Section 2 – vSphere

Q6: What is VMware vSphere?

A: vSphere is VMware's virtualization suite that includes ESXi, vCenter, and management components. It allows enterprises to build and manage virtualized data centers.

Key Takeaway: vSphere = ESXi + vCenter + ecosystem.

Q7: What is vCenter Server and why is it important?

A: vCenter Server is the centralized management platform for VMware environments. It allows you to manage multiple ESXi hosts, configure HA/DRS, monitor performance, and automate tasks.

Key Takeaway: vCenter = 'single pane of glass' for VMware admins.

Q8: What deployment models are available for vCenter?

- vCenter Server Appliance (VCSA) – Linux-based VM (preferred).
- Windows-based vCenter Server (deprecated after vSphere 7).

Key Takeaway: Always use VCSA in modern environments.

Q9: What is HA ?

A: HA means High Availability. HA restarts VMs on another host if a host fails. It uses heartbeat monitoring between ESXi hosts via vCenter.

Key Takeaway: HA = VM uptime during host failure.

Q10: What is DRS ?

A: DRS means Distributed Resource Scheduler. DRS balances workloads across hosts using vMotion. It automatically migrates VMs to maintain resource efficiency.

Key Takeaway: DRS = workload balancing + performance optimization.

Q11: What is Enhanced vMotion Compatibility (EVC)?

A: EVC masks CPU features so VMs can vMotion across different host generations without errors.

Key Takeaway: EVC = smooth VM migration across different CPUs.

Section 3 – ESXi

Q12: What is ESXi ?

A: ESXi is VMware's bare-metal hypervisor. It installs directly on hardware and runs virtual machines.

Key Takeaway: ESXi = foundation of VMware virtualization.

Q13: What is the difference between ESXi Free and Licensed versions?

A: • Free: No vCenter management, limited API access.
• Licensed: Full features (HA, DRS, vMotion, etc.).

Key Takeaway: Free ESXi is for labs; production needs licensing.

Q14: How do you install ESXi?

A: Via bootable ISO/USB → configure management IP, root password → access via DCUI or vSphere Client.

Key Takeaway: ESXi setup is lightweight but critical for host stability.

Q15: What is the Direct Console User Interface (DCUI)?

A: The yellow/gray local interface of ESXi for configuring networking, password resets, troubleshooting.

Key Takeaway: DCUI = first line of host troubleshooting.

Q16: How to patch or upgrade ESXi?

A: Methods include:
• vSphere Lifecycle Manager (via vCenter)
• ESXCLI commands
• Boot ISO upgrade

Key Takeaway: Lifecycle Manager = enterprise patching standard.

Q17: What is vMotion?

A: vMotion allows live migration of running VMs between ESXi hosts with no downtime.

Key Takeaway: vMotion = zero-downtime migration.

Q18: Difference between vMotion and Storage vMotion?

A: • vMotion = Migrates VM compute (CPU/Memory).

- Storage vMotion = Migrates VM disk storage.

Key Takeaway: vMotion = CPU/Memory, Storage vMotion = Disk.

Section 4 – Storage

Q19: What is VMFS?

A: VMFS (Virtual Machine File System) is VMware's clustered file system for storing VM files on shared storage.

Key Takeaway: VMFS enables multiple ESXi hosts to read/write to the same datastore.

Q20: Difference between VMFS, NFS, and vSAN?

A: • VMFS: Block-level, used with FC/iSCSI.

- NFS: File-level, mounted over network.
- vSAN: VMware's hyper-converged storage, aggregates local disks into a shared datastore.

Key Takeaway: Choose based on performance, cost, and use case.

Q21: What is Raw Device Mapping (RDM)?

A: RDM allows a VM to directly access a LUN on physical storage. Useful for clustering or applications requiring SAN features.

Key Takeaway: RDM = VM direct access to SAN LUNs.

Q22: What is Storage vMotion?

A: Storage vMotion migrates a VM's disks from one datastore to another with no downtime.

Key Takeaway: Storage vMotion = zero-downtime storage migration.

Q23: What is vSphere Storage DRS?

A: Storage DRS balances VMs across datastores based on space and I/O latency.

Key Takeaway: Storage DRS = performance + capacity balancing.

Section 5 – Networking

Q24: What is a vSwitch?

A: A vSwitch (Virtual Switch) is VMware's software switch for connecting VMs to physical networks or other VMs.

Key Takeaway: vSwitch = virtual network backbone inside ESXi.

Q25: Difference between Standard vSwitch (vSS) and Distributed vSwitch (vDS)?

- A:
- vSS: Configured per host manually.
 - vDS: Centralized across all hosts via vCenter.

Key Takeaway: Use vDS for enterprise environments; vSS for small setups.

Q26: What is NIC teaming?

A: Combining multiple NICs to provide redundancy and load balancing.

Key Takeaway: NIC teaming = fault tolerance + performance.

Q27: How are VLANs implemented in VMware?

A: VLANs are configured on port groups within a vSwitch. Tags (802.1q) separate traffic logically.

Key Takeaway: VLANs = logical network segmentation.

Q28: What is VMware NSX?

A: NSX is VMware's network virtualization platform providing microsegmentation, overlay networks, and advanced security.

Key Takeaway: NSX = software-defined networking for VMware.

Section 6 – High Availability & DRS

Q29: What is vSphere HA?

A: HA restarts VMs on surviving hosts when a host fails. Uses heartbeat monitoring and datastore heartbeating.

Key Takeaway: HA = automatic VM restart during host failure.

Q30: What is Admission Control in HA?

A: Admission Control ensures enough resources are reserved for VM failover by limiting new VM placements.

Key Takeaway: Admission Control = guarantees failover capacity.

Q31: What is vSphere Fault Tolerance (FT)?

A: FT creates a live shadow VM that runs in lockstep with the primary VM, ensuring zero downtime if the host fails.

Key Takeaway: FT = continuous availability, no downtime, no data loss.

Q32: Difference between HA and FT?

- A:
- HA: Restarts VM on another host (short downtime).
 - FT: Keeps VM running without downtime (higher resource usage).

Key Takeaway: HA = restart, FT = no downtime.

Q33: What is DRS and how does it differ from HA?

- A:
- DRS: Balances resource usage (proactive).
 - HA: Recovers from host failure (reactive).

Key Takeaway: DRS = performance, HA = availability.

Section 7 – vSANQ41: What is vSAN?

A: vSAN is VMware's hyper-converged storage solution that aggregates local disks of ESXi hosts into a single shared datastore.

Key Takeaway: vSAN = storage virtualization built into ESXi.

Q42: What are the requirements for vSAN?

A:

Minimum of 3 ESXi hosts (2 + 1 witness).

Each host must have at least 1 SSD for cache and 1 HDD/SSD for capacity.

vSAN license.

Key Takeaway: Minimum 3 hosts + SSD cache required.

Q43: What are vSAN disk groups?

A: A disk group contains one SSD (cache tier) and 1–7 capacity drives (HDDs/SSDs).

Key Takeaway: Disk group = SSD cache + capacity.

Q44: Difference between All-Flash and Hybrid vSAN?

A:

- All-Flash: SSDs for both cache and capacity (high performance).
- Hybrid: SSD for cache + HDDs for capacity (cost-effective).

Key Takeaway: All-Flash = performance, Hybrid = cheaper.

Q45: How does vSAN ensure data availability?

A: vSAN uses storage policies like Failures To Tolerate (FTT) with replication or erasure coding to protect against host/disk failures.

Key Takeaway: FTT = resilience against failures.

Section 8 – Backup & Recovery

Q46: What is VMware Data Protection (VDP)?

A: VDP was VMware's built-in backup solution, but it is now deprecated. Enterprises use third-party tools like Veeam or Commvault.

Key Takeaway: VDP is outdated; use third-party solutions.

Q47: What is a VM snapshot and how does it work?

A: A snapshot captures a VM's state (disk, memory, config) at a given point. Useful for patch testing and quick rollback.

Key Takeaway: Snapshots ≠ backups.

Q48: What are snapshot best practices?

A:

- Don't keep snapshots for more than 72 hours.
- Consolidate regularly.
- Use only for short-term testing.

Key Takeaway: Snapshots = temporary, not permanent.

Q49: What is vSphere Replication?

A: A feature that asynchronously replicates VMs between sites for disaster recovery.

Key Takeaway: Replication = DR tool, not backup.

Q50: How do you back up vCenter Server Appliance (VCSA)?

A: Use its built-in file-based backup (FTP, HTTP, SFTP) or image-level backups via supported tools.

Key Takeaway: Always back up vCenter — file-based is built-in.

Section 9 – Security

Q51: What is VM Encryption in vSphere?

A: Encrypts VM files at rest using vCenter and a Key Management Server (KMS).

Key Takeaway: Encryption = protect VM data at rest.

Q52: What is vTPM and why is it needed?

A: vTPM is a virtual Trusted Platform Module. It enables VMs to meet compliance (e.g., Windows 11 requirements).

Key Takeaway: vTPM = required for Windows 11 support.

Q53: How does VMware handle roles and permissions?

A: vSphere uses Role-Based Access Control (RBAC). Roles = sets of privileges assigned to users/groups.

Key Takeaway: RBAC = granular security.

Q54: How do you secure ESXi hosts?

A:

- Enable lockdown mode.
- Restrict DCUI and SSH access.
- Patch regularly.
- Use ESXi firewall.

Key Takeaway: Lockdown mode = key defense.

Q55: What is NSX microsegmentation?

A: NSX allows firewalling at the VM NIC level, enforcing zero-trust security.

Key Takeaway: Microsegmentation = workload isolation.

Section 10 – Troubleshooting

Q56: A VM is powered on but you can't ping it. How do you troubleshoot?

A:

1. Check VM network adapter is connected to the correct port group.
2. Verify VLAN settings on vSwitch.
3. Confirm physical NICs are up and mapped.
4. Ping from ESXi host using `vmkping`.

Key Takeaway: Start with virtual network config, then check physical.

Q57: What do you do if vCenter Server is down?

A:

- Use direct ESXi host connection via vSphere Client/Host Client.

- For HA/DRS operations, restore vCenter ASAP (backup/file restore).
Key Takeaway: ESXi works standalone; vCenter = central management.

Q58: You get “No space left on datastore” error. How do you fix it?

A:

- Delete old snapshots.
- Storage vMotion to larger datastore.
- Increase datastore capacity (expand LUN, resize).
Key Takeaway: Snapshots often consume hidden storage.

Q59: A VM is stuck during vMotion. Steps?

A:

- Check vMotion network connectivity.
- Validate vSwitch uplinks and MTU size.
- Look at CPU/Memory compatibility.
Key Takeaway: 90% of vMotion failures = networking misconfig.

Q60: ESXi host is not responding in vCenter. What do you check?

A:

- Ping host management IP.
- Check host services (management agents).
- Restart management services via DCUI/SSH (`services.sh restart`).
Key Takeaway: Restart mgmt agents solves most ESXi connectivity issues.

Q61: VM performance is slow. What do you check?

A:

- CPU ready time in vSphere performance charts.
- Memory ballooning/swapping.
- Storage latency.
Key Takeaway: CPU ready + storage latency = top performance bottlenecks.

Q62: How do you troubleshoot PSOD (Purple Screen of Death) on ESXi?

A:

- Collect core dump/logs.
- Check hardware compatibility (HCL).
- Apply latest patches/firmware.
Key Takeaway: PSOD = hardware/driver issues mostly.

Q63: vCenter login failing — what do you do?

A:

- Check if vCenter service is running.
 - Try root/admin SSO login.
 - Verify certificate expiration.
- Key Takeaway: vCenter cert expiry often blocks logins.

Q64: VM is orphaned in inventory. How to fix?

A:

- Remove orphaned entry from vCenter.
 - Re-register VMX file to inventory from datastore.
- Key Takeaway: Orphan = lost VM registration, not deleted VM.

Q65: Backup job keeps failing. Steps?

A:

- Check snapshots consolidation.
 - Verify backup proxy network config.
 - Review storage logs for latency.
- Key Takeaway: Snapshots cause majority of backup issues.

Section 11 – Real-World Scenarios

Q66: Your ESXi host suddenly fails. What happens to the VMs?

A:

- With HA enabled → VMs restart on another host.
 - Without HA → VMs remain down.
- Key Takeaway: HA = must-have for uptime.

Q67: You need to patch ESXi hosts in production. How do you avoid downtime?

A:

- Use vSphere Lifecycle Manager.
 - Place hosts in maintenance mode (vMotion VMs).
 - Patch → reboot → re-add to cluster.
- Key Takeaway: Rolling upgrades prevent downtime.

Q68: How do you handle storage migration with zero downtime?

A: Use Storage vMotion to move VM disks while VM is running.

Key Takeaway: Storage vMotion = downtime-free migration.

Q69: A customer needs PCI-DSS compliance. What VMware features help?

A:

- VM Encryption, vTPM.
- NSX microsegmentation.
- Role-based access control.

Key Takeaway: Security compliance = encryption + microsegmentation.

Q70: You're asked to consolidate multiple physical servers into VMware. What's your approach?

A:

- Assess workloads with VMware Converter/Capacity Planner.
- Size ESXi cluster accordingly.
- Perform P2V (Physical to Virtual) migrations.

Key Takeaway: Assessment before P2V is critical.

Q71: A developer requests multiple test environments. How do you deliver quickly?

A: Use VM templates + cloning for rapid deployment.

Key Takeaway: Templates = consistent, fast provisioning.

Q72: Your DR site test fails. What's your troubleshooting flow?

A:

- Validate replication health (vSphere Replication/Storage).
- Check network mapping at DR site.
- Ensure DNS/IP settings match failover plan.

Key Takeaway: Test DR regularly; don't assume it works.

Q73: Customer wants cost savings on storage. What feature do you recommend?

A: Deduplication and compression with vSAN All-Flash.

Key Takeaway: vSAN features = cost + performance optimization.

Q74: You're tasked to migrate workloads to the cloud. VMware solution?

A: VMware Cloud on AWS (or other VMware Cloud partners).

Key Takeaway: VMware Cloud = hybrid strategy.

Q75: A VM requires very high availability (no downtime). What do you configure?

A: VMware Fault Tolerance (FT).

Key Takeaway: FT = zero downtime, zero data loss.

Section 12 – Licensing & Versions

Q76: What are the main VMware vSphere editions?

A:

- Standard (basic virtualization).
- Enterprise Plus (includes DRS, DPM, dvSwitch, etc.).

- vSphere Essentials/Essentials Plus (for SMBs).
Key Takeaway: Enterprise Plus = full feature set.

Q77: How is VMware licensed?

A: Licensed per physical CPU socket (vSphere 7/8 also have per-core limits).

Key Takeaway: Licensing is CPU-based, with some per-core restrictions.

Q78: Difference between vSphere Standard and Enterprise Plus?

A: Enterprise Plus adds DRS, dvSwitch, Storage DRS, Host Profiles, and more.

Key Takeaway: Enterprise Plus = automation + scalability.

Q79: What is VMware Tanzu?

A: Tanzu integrates Kubernetes with vSphere for containerized workloads.

Key Takeaway: Tanzu = containers + VMware integration.

Q80: Which VMware features are only available with Enterprise Plus?

A: DRS, dvSwitch, Storage DRS, Host Profiles, Auto Deploy.

Key Takeaway: Advanced automation needs Enterprise Plus.

Section 13 – Performance Tuning

Q81: How do you troubleshoot CPU contention?

A:

- Check CPU Ready time in vSphere.
 - Reduce vCPU count per VM.
 - Enable DRS for load balancing.
- Key Takeaway: CPU Ready >10% = performance issue.

Q82: What is NUMA and why is it important?

A: Non-Uniform Memory Access — ESXi schedules VMs based on CPU/memory locality for performance.

Key Takeaway: Align VM vCPU count with NUMA nodes.

Q83: How to reduce VM memory ballooning?

A:

- Add physical memory to host.
 - Optimize VM sizing.
 - Use memory reservations.
- Key Takeaway: Ballooning = memory pressure warning.

Q84: How do you monitor storage latency in vSphere?

A: Check datastore/VM latency in performance charts or ESXTOP.

Key Takeaway: >20ms latency = storage bottleneck.

Q85: How do you optimize vMotion performance?

A:

- Use dedicated vMotion NICs.
- Enable jumbo frames (MTU 9000).
- Isolate vMotion network.

Key Takeaway: Network config = smooth vMotion.

Section 14 – Hybrid Cloud & Modern VMware

Q86: What is VMware Cloud Foundation (VCF)?

A: An integrated stack of vSphere, vSAN, NSX, and SDDC Manager for private/hybrid cloud.

Key Takeaway: VCF = full software-defined data center.

Q87: Difference between VMware Cloud on AWS and on-prem vSphere?

A: VMware Cloud on AWS runs vSphere/vSAN/NSX on Amazon bare-metal infrastructure.

Key Takeaway: Same VMware tools, but hosted in AWS.

Q88: What is HCX in VMware?

A: Hybrid Cloud Extension — enables VM mobility between on-prem and cloud VMware environments.

Key Takeaway: HCX = seamless migration to cloud.

Q89: What are VMware's multi-cloud strategies?

A: VMware Aria (vRealize) + VMware Cloud offerings across AWS, Azure, GCP.

Key Takeaway: VMware = cloud-agnostic strategy.

Q90: How does VMware integrate with Kubernetes?

A: Via Tanzu, vSphere with Tanzu enables Kubernetes clusters on ESXi hosts.

Key Takeaway: Tanzu = K8s inside vSphere.

Section 15 – Advanced Real-World Scenarios

Q91: How do you plan a VMware upgrade from 6.7 to 7.x/8.x?

A:

- Check HCL compatibility.
- Upgrade vCenter first.
- Upgrade ESXi hosts (via Lifecycle Manager).
- Upgrade VMware Tools & VM hardware.

Key Takeaway: Always upgrade vCenter → ESXi → VMs.

Q92: A VM is business-critical and cannot tolerate downtime. What's your strategy?

A: Use VMware Fault Tolerance (FT) or application clustering.

Key Takeaway: FT = zero downtime, but resource-heavy.

Q93: How do you handle ESXi certificate management?

A: Replace self-signed certs with CA-signed certs via vSphere Certificate Manager.

Key Takeaway: Certificates = secure vSphere environment.

Q94: How do you prepare for a DR failover test?

A: Validate replication, test network mappings, and simulate workload failover.

Key Takeaway: Regular DR tests = readiness.

Q95: Your cluster is overcommitted on CPU. What are your options?

A:

- Add more hosts.
- Use DRS.
- Resize VMs with fewer vCPUs.

Key Takeaway: Overcommitment is okay until performance issues show.

Q96: How do you secure vSphere against ransomware?

A:

- VM encryption.
- Immutable backups.
- Role-based access with MFA.

Key Takeaway: Security = layered defense.

Q97: A VM migration fails halfway. What do you check?

A:

- vMotion/Storage vMotion network logs.
- Datastore capacity.
- CPU compatibility (EVC).

Key Takeaway: Migration failures = mostly network/storage issues.

Q98: You need to optimize costs for a VMware environment. What steps?

A:

- Rightsize VMs.
- Use storage policies (thin provisioning, dedupe, compression).
- Consolidate workloads.

Key Takeaway: Rightsizing saves $$ on VMware.

Q99: What's the impact of not installing VMware Tools?

A: No heartbeat, degraded performance, limited driver support.

Key Takeaway: VMware Tools = mandatory for performance.

Q100: If you could implement only HA or DRS, which would you choose and why?

A: HA, because availability is more critical than performance optimization.

Key Takeaway: Availability > optimization.

Q101: How do you test VM failover without disrupting production?

A: Use Site Recovery Manager (SRM) planned migration test.

Key Takeaway: SRM = safe DR testing.

Q102: How do you handle a corrupted vCenter database?

A: Restore from latest backup or redeploy VCSA and reattach hosts.

Key Takeaway: Always back up vCenter DB.

Q103: What steps ensure VMware environment scalability?

A:

- Add hosts incrementally.
- Use vDS for networking.
- Use Storage DRS + vSAN.

Key Takeaway: Scalability = modular design.

Q104: How do you reduce downtime during planned maintenance?

A: Leverage vMotion, DRS evacuation, rolling upgrades.

Key Takeaway: vMotion = zero downtime maintenance.

Q105: What are VMware's key tools for monitoring and alerting?

A: vRealize Operations Manager (vROps), Log Insight, vCenter alarms.

Key Takeaway: vROps = deep monitoring.

✓ Final Recap

We now have 105 detailed Q&A, structured into 15 logical sections:

1. Basics
2. vSphere

3. ESXi
4. Storage
5. Networking
6. HA/DRS
7. vSAN
8. Backup & Recovery
9. Security
10. Troubleshooting
11. Real-world Scenarios
12. Licensing & Versions
13. Performance Tuning
14. Hybrid Cloud
15. Advanced Scenarios

HOLIDAYS PUNE

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Pongal / Makar Sankranti	14-Jan-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Rakshabandhan	28-Aug-26	Friday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS MUMBAI

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Pongal / Makar Sankranti	14-Jan-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Rakshabandhan	28-Aug-26	Friday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS GOA

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Pongal / Makar Sankranti	14-Jan-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Rakshabandhan	28-Aug-26	Friday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS KOLKATA

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Pongal / Makar Sankranti	14-Jan-26	Wednesday
Netaji Sc Bose Jayanti	23-Jan-26	Friday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Bengali New Year	15-Apr-26	Wednesday
Rakshabandhan	28-Aug-26	Friday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday
Durga Pooja	19-Oct-26	Monday

HOLIDAYS NAGPUR

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Pongal / Makar Sankranti	14-Jan-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Rakshabandhan	28-Aug-26	Friday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ganesh Chaturthi	14-Sep-26	Monday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS GURUGRAM

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Pongal / Makar Sankranti	14-Jan-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ganesh Chaturthi	14-Sep-26	Monday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS NOIDA

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Pongal / Makar Sankranti	14-Jan-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ganesh Chaturthi	14-Sep-26	Monday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS INDORE

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Pongal / Makar Sankranti	14-Jan-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Eid al-Zuha (Bakrid)	27-May-26	Wednesday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS JAIPUR

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Pongal / Makar Sankranti	14-Jan-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Eid al-Zuha (Bakrid)	27-May-26	Wednesday
Ganesh Chaturthi	14-Sep-26	Monday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS BENGALURU / HOLIDAYS BANGALORE

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Holi (Dhulivandan)	3-Mar-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Rakshabandhan	28-Aug-26	Friday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS HYDERABAD

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Holi (Dhulivandan)	3-Mar-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Eid al-Zuha (Bakrid)	27-May-26	Wednesday
Rakshabandhan	28-Aug-26	Friday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS CHENNAI

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Holi (Dhulivandan)	3-Mar-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Rakshabandhan	28-Aug-26	Friday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Bali Pratipada (Diwali)	10-Nov-26	Tuesday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS AHMEDABAD

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Holi (Dhulivandan)	3-Mar-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Ganesh Chaturthi	14-Sep-26	Monday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

HOLIDAYS KOCHI

Holiday Name	Date	Day
New Year's Day	1-Jan-26	Thursday
Holi (Dhulivandan)	3-Mar-26	Wednesday
Ram Navmi	27-Mar-26	Friday
Good Friday	3-Apr-26	Friday
Eid al-Zuha (Bakrid)	27-May-26	Wednesday
Third Onam	27-Aug-26	Thursday
Rakshabandhan	28-Aug-26	Friday
Ganesh Chaturthi	14-Sep-26	Monday
Krishna Janmashtami	4-Sep-26	Friday
Ananth Chaturdashi	23-Sep-26	Wednesday

PSL, Persistent and Persistent systems are same thing

HJ and Hinjewadi are same thing

Cafeteria Menu — Pune — Aryabhata

DAY	LUNCH MENU	SNACKS
MONDAY	Chapati - Methi, Plain Rice, Dal Moghlai, Chole Masala, Kapri Alu, Salad, Curd, Pickle, Fruit	Kachi Dabeli
TUESDAY	Chapati, Tawa Pulao, Dal Fry, Sev Bhaji, Mix Veg Sukha, Salad, Chutney, Pickle, Soup	Sprout Chiwda Chat
WEDNESDAY	Chapati, Plain Rice, Dal Sangam, Paneer Tikka Masala, Gawar Sukha, Salad, Buttermilk, Pickle, Sweet	Veg Upma Chutney
THURSDAY	Chapati, Jeera Rice, Dal Tadka, Matki Usal, Alu Mutter Smashed, Salad, Curd, Pickle, Soup, Fruit	B/B Chutney Sandwich
FRIDAY	Chapati - Masala, Plain Rice, Dal Fry, Veg Kolhapuri, Palak Mogar, Salad, Buttermilk, Pickle, Sweet	Samosa

Cafeteria Menu — Pune — Ramanujan

Day	Lunch Menu	Snacks
Monday	Chapati - Methi, Plain Rice, Dal Moghlai, Kapri Alu, Chole Masala, Tandoori Salad, Curd, Masala Kairi, Fruit	Kachi Dabeli, Tea, Coffee
Tuesday	Chapati, Tawa Pulao, Dal Fry, Mix Veg Sukha, Sev Bhaji, Boondi Raitha, Roasted Papad, Sweetcorn Soup	Black Chana Chat, Lime Sarbat, Tea, Coffee
Wednesday	Chapati, Plain Rice, Dal Sangam, Gawar Sukha, Paneer Tikka Masala, Cut Cube Salad, Buttermilk, Doodhi Halwa	Sewai Upma, Tea, Coffee
Thursday	Chapati, Burnt Garlic Fried Rice, Dal Fry, Alu Mutter Smashed, Veg Manchurian, Soya Chilli, Curd, Fruit, Veg Clear Soup	Brown Bread Chutney Sandwich, Tea, Coffee
Friday	Chapati - Masala, Plain Rice, Dal Tadka, Palak Mogar, Veg Kolhapuri, Buttermilk, Moti Chur Laddu	Samosa, Kairi Panha, Tea, Coffee